

READERS' CHOICE TOP 10 Recruiters

Each month, Women's Business asks readers for nominations to create a top 10 list in a particular category. In this issue, we present the region's leaders in recruitment. Following are the dynamic professionals readers turn to for top-notch search and placement expertise.

Joni Lee Rossi

President & CEO
MacPherson Group

"Joni's business model is based on helping women achieve success. She maintains relationships with the candidates she places, encouraging them and sometimes placing them in new jobs years later as they seek to climb the corporate ladder. Joni has integrity and stamina. She's a great role model for other women: She's confident, poised and articulate, and her track record speaks for itself."
